

January 20, 2015

Dear Sir or Madam:

On February 27, 2015 the Lehigh Valley Engineering Council (LVEC) will host the 35th Annual Lehigh Valley Engineer’s Week Banquet. Each year the Banquet brings together engineers from throughout the region to celebrate engineering and recognize the accomplishments of the Lehigh Valley’s engineering community. This year we will be honoring the 2014 Engineer of the Year and Young Engineer of the Year. We are proud to announce that the keynote speaker is expected to be Komandur Sunder Raj from Power & Energy Systems Services whose topic will be “Energy Resources and the Power Industry – Where Are We Headed?”

The Lehigh Valley Engineering Council (LVEC) is a non-profit organization that promotes enthusiasm for engineering and surveying, enhances professional development opportunities in the area, and facilitates communication and interaction within our community. LVEC provides support for the wide array of active engineering societies in the Lehigh Valley, including the Society of Women Engineers, Engineers Without Borders, and local sections of national engineering societies. LVEC also provides support for local events like the PA Junior Academy of Science, the Future City competition, and the annual Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Conference.

None of this would be possible without the generous support of local businesses like yours. We thank you for your generous donation in the past and invite you to participate again this year. Your sponsorship support will be used to offset the costs of the banquet - including encouraging students to attend the event, providing honorarium gifts and issuing recognition certificates - as well as to help support our growing activity lists for 2015-2016 programs. There are three levels of Sponsorship available:
